

Renoir ranked as top women-owned firm in Bay Area

November 4, 2009 -- (Oakland, CA) Renoir Staffing Services, Inc. has been named 59th on the list of the top women-owned businesses in the Bay Area by the San Francisco Business Times in the September 11, 2009 issue and at a celebration held on Sept. 18. This is the seventh time that Renoir has made this list.

Founder and CEO Carol Kotewicz-Dencker said that she is honored to be among the top women-owned businesses. "When I started Renoir Staffing Services 24 years ago, there were few women entrepreneurs and it was difficult for women to get funding for start-ups," said Kotewicz-Dencker. "Now, it is gratifying to see the tremendous strides women have made in business and their role in creating local jobs."

When asked about the current economic impact on her business, Kotewicz-Dencker was upbeat. "At Renoir, we continue to see demand for highly qualified portfolio managers, property managers, leasing consultants and maintenance staff," said Kotewicz-Dencker. "I'm appreciative of the long-term business relationships with those in the real estate industry that have helped propel Renoir to this top 100 list."
