THE APPLICATION PROCESS AND EMPLOYMENT INFORMATION

Resume

It is recommended that all candidates shall have on file with Renoir Staffing LLC (Renoir) a current resume that includes past employment history as well as duties, accomplishments, titles and areas of expertise. Every resume shall contain all certificates, licenses and professional designations held by the candidate. Professional looking resumes more effectively communicate your talents to a hiring authority. An account manager can assist you to create an effective resume.

Employee Application

All candidates must fill out the standard Renoir application form. Completed applications are used to accurately document your employment and educational history.

W-4 Form and State Tax Form

All candidates for employment shall fill out a current W-4 form and any applicable state tax form so that Renoir can withhold the correct federal and state income tax from your pay.

I-9 Proof of Citizenship or Legal Resident Alien Status

Renoir complies with the Immigration Reform and Control Act, and accordingly requires all candidates to provide verification of authorization to work in the U.S. before Renoir is able to place you on an assignment. Examples of acceptable identification include: Driver's License, Government issued I.D. card, Social Security Card, birth certificate, U.S. Passport, or Permanent Resident Card. (See I-9 form for complete list of acceptable forms of identification.)

Social Security Number (SSN) Trace

The SSN Trace will compare your SSN information against aliases, utility records and additional sources. This is an added level of identity verification.

Consent for Background Search Form

As a condition of employment, Renoir conducts a background search in accordance with state and federal laws. All candidates must sign and date a consent form, either in writing or electronically, giving Renoir permission to conduct a background search upon hire, and prior to assignment to a client worksite. Renoir is free to hire a service of our choosing to conduct this search. The candidate will not be charged for this service. Criminal convictions are not an automatic bar to employment. Each situation will be handled on a case-by-case basis.

Drug Testing

Renoir is committed to providing a safe, efficient and productive work environment for all employees. Using or being under the influence of drugs or alcohol on the job may pose serious safety and health risks. To help ensure a safe and healthful working environment, candidates may be asked to provide body substance samples (such as urine and/or blood) to determine the presence of illicit or illegal drugs or alcohol. Renoir will require a drug screen test whenever an on-the-job accident or injury occurs, according to Renoir's Substance Abuse Policy. In addition, some Renoir clients require that all candidates be administered and pass a drug test before being placed at their jobsite. See Appendix A for Renoir's complete Substance Abuse Policy.

Reference Forms

Renoir requires each candidate to provide two professional references from past employment supervisors. Candidates will be provided forms to complete with the professional reference's contact information, including his or her name, address, zip code and phone number. A candidate's application will not be processed until valid references have been provided and contacted.

Skills Assessment

Renoir provides each candidate with a skills checklist in order to better assess your ability to perform designated jobs. In addition, Renoir requires each candidate to test for stated skills. Office skill tests are computerized; Maintenance and Property Management skills tests are handwritten. All tests will be administered and scored prior to employment to ensure an appropriate job placement.

Job Duty Exclusion List

All employees are required to acknowledge the Job Duty Exclusion List, which lists job duties temporary employees are restricted from performing while on assignment. The following areas of work are excluded from Renoir employees' approved work list due to safety concerns. Employees of Renoir:

- May not perform any roofing work or inspect or repair any roof.
- May not use his or her own vehicle for the client's purposes.
- May not work on air conditioning units or HVAC systems located on a roof.
- May not work on or in electrical panels or boxes, breaker boxes, sub panels or junction boxes.
- May not repair elevators or any of their equipment.
- May not repair or work on fire extinguishers, fire alarm systems or burglar systems.
- May not handle or work with dangerous or toxic chemicals; household chemicals are acceptable for use.
- May not remove, work, touch or handle any asbestos issue on a complex, including but not limited to, insulation, floor coverings, ceiling coverings, etc.
- May not work on pool equipment.
- May not repair overhead doors that automatically open.
- May not clean or repair gutters or downspouts that are not ground level.
- May not work on top of carports.
- May never move appliances or large/heavy furniture upstairs or downstairs. The moving of appliances or large/heavy furniture within an apartment is only acceptable if provided with appropriate equipment and proper safety wear OR lifting with a partner. The moving of appliances or furniture may only be to perform needed work within an apartment.
- May not use power tools beyond those that are operated solely by battery power.
- May not climb a ladder past the second rung.

If any Renoir employee is unclear or has questions about a particular job, they are directed to call their account manager or the Folsom office (916.290.6590) before proceeding.

Staff Interview of Candidate

All candidates are required to complete an in-person interview with a Renoir account manager in order to be placed by Renoir on assignment.

Wage Notification Form

Candidates will receive a copy of the Wage Notification Form (Notice to Employee, Labor Code Section 2810.5) in their assignment confirmation email at the beginning of every new assignment. The account manager or staffing associate will send out this email before any assignment begins. The information listed in the assignment confirmation email will provide details about your employer, wage information, worker's compensation and paid sick leave.

How Are Wages Calculated?

There are many factors that influence how a wage is calculated for a specific job. These factors include, but are not limited to:

- Skill set required by client.
- Number of years' experience required by client for a specific job title.
- Rates a given client is able or willing to pay.
- Length of assignment.
- Availability within our labor pool to fill a given position.
- The ability to be competitive within the marketplace for our services.
- Evaluation forms submitted by our clients on an employee's past performance.

Harassment, Discrimination and Retaliation Prevention Policy

California employers with at least five employees—including temporary and seasonal workers—must provide two hours of sexual harassment prevention training for supervisors and one hour for all other employees every two years (or within 6 months for a new hire or a worker who is promoted to a supervisory position). The initial training must be completed by January 1, 2020. This is a requirement to be employed by Renoir Staffing LLC.

Renoir is an equal opportunity employer. Renoir is committed to providing a work environment free of harassment, discrimination, retaliation and disrespectful or other unprofessional conduct based on:

- Race
- Religion (including religious dress and grooming practices)
- Color
- Sex/gender (including pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding or related medical conditions), sex stereotype, gender identity/gender expression/transgender (including whether or not you are transitioning or have transitioned) and sexual orientation
- National origin (including language use restrictions and possession of a driver's license issued to persons unable to prove their presence in the United States is authorized under federal law [Vehicle Code section 12801.9])
- Ancestry
- Physical or mental disability
- Medical condition
- Genetic information/characteristics
- Marital status/registered domestic partner status
- Age (40 and above)
- Sexual orientation
- Military or veteran status
- Any other basis protected by federal, state or local law or ordinance or regulation

Renoir also prohibits discrimination, harassment, disrespectful or unprofessional conduct based on the perception that anyone has any of those characteristics or is associated with a person who has or is perceived as having any of those characteristics.

In addition, Renoir prohibits retaliation against individuals who raise complaints of discrimination or harassment or who participate in workplace investigations. All such conduct violates Renoir policy.

Harassment Prevention

Renoir's policy prohibiting harassment applies to all persons involved in the operation of Renoir. Renoir prohibits harassment, disrespectful or unprofessional conduct by any employee of Renoir, including supervisors, managers, and coworkers. Renoir's anti-harassment policy also applies to vendors, customers, independent contractors, unpaid interns, volunteers, persons providing services pursuant to a contract and other persons with whom you come into contact while working.

Prohibited harassment, disrespectful or unprofessional conduct includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Verbal conduct such as epithets, derogatory jokes or comments, slurs or unwanted sexual advances, invitations, comments, posts or messages.
- Visual displays such as derogatory and/or sexually oriented posters, photography, cartoons, drawings or gestures.
- Physical conduct including assault, unwanted touching, intentionally blocking normal movement or interfering with work because of sex, race or any other protected basis.
- Threats and demands to submit to sexual requests or sexual advances as a condition of continued employment, or to avoid some other loss and offers of employment benefits in return for sexual favors.
- Retaliation for reporting or threatening to report harassment.
- Communication via electronic media of any type that includes any conduct that is prohibited by state and/or federal law or by company policy.

Sexual harassment does not need to be motivated by sexual desire to be unlawful or to violate this policy. For example, hostile acts toward an employee because of his/her gender can amount to sexual harassment, regardless of whether the treatment is motivated by sexual desire. Furthermore, prohibited harassment is not just sexual harassment, but harassment based on any protected category.

Non-Discrimination

Renoir is committed to compliance with all applicable laws providing equal employment opportunities. This commitment applies to all persons involved in Renoir's operations. Renoir prohibits unlawful discrimination against any job applicant, employee or unpaid intern by any employee of Renoir, including supervisors and coworkers.

Pay discrimination between employees of the opposite sex or between employees of another race or ethnicity performing substantially similar work, as defined by the California Fair Pay Act and federal law, is prohibited. Pay differentials may be valid in certain situations defined by law. Employees will not be retaliated against for inquiring about or discussing wages. However, Renoir is not obligated to disclose the wages of other employees.

Anti-Retaliation

Renoir will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint or participating in any workplace investigation or complaint process and will not tolerate or permit retaliation by management, employees or coworkers.

Reasonable Accommodation

Discrimination can also include failing to reasonably accommodate religious practices or qualified individuals with disabilities where the accommodation does not pose an undue hardship.

To comply with applicable laws ensuring equal employment opportunities to qualified individuals with a disability, Renoir will make reasonable accommodations for the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual who is an applicant or an employee, unless undue hardship would result.

Any job applicant or employee who requires an accommodation in order to perform the essential functions of the job should contact a Renoir representative with day-to-day personnel responsibilities and discuss the need for an accommodation. Renoir will engage in an interactive process with the employee to identify possible accommodations, if any, which will help the applicant or employee perform the job. An applicant, employee or unpaid intern who requires an accommodation of a religious belief or practice (including religious dress and grooming practices, such as religious clothing or hairstyles) should also contact a Renoir representative with day-to-day personnel responsibilities and discuss the need for an accommodation. If the accommodation is reasonable and will not impose an undue hardship, Renoir will make the accommodation.

Renoir will not retaliate against you for requesting a reasonable accommodation and will not knowingly tolerate or permit retaliation by management, employees or coworkers.

Complaint Process

If you believe that you have been the subject of harassment, discrimination, retaliation or other prohibited conduct, bring your complaint to your supervisor or to any Renoir representative as soon as possible after the incident. If you need assistance with your complaint, or if you prefer to make a complaint in person, contact Anne Sparks, Director of Corporate Affairs, at 916.290.6588. Please provide all known details of the incident or incidents, names of individuals involved and names of any witnesses. It would be best to communicate your complaint in writing, but this is not mandatory.

Renoir encourages all individuals to report any incidents of harassment, discrimination, retaliation, or other prohibited conduct forbidden by this policy immediately so that complaints can be quickly and fairly resolved. Supervisors must refer all complaints involving harassment, discrimination, retaliation or other prohibited conduct to the Director of Corporate Affairs for Renoir so that Renoir can try to resolve the complaint.

When Renoir receives allegations of misconduct, it will immediately undertake a fair, timely, thorough and objective investigation of the allegations in accordance with all legal requirements. Renoir will reach reasonable conclusions based on the evidence collected.

Complaints will be:

- Responded to in a timely manner.
- Kept confidential to the extent possible.
- Investigated impartially by qualified personnel in a timely manner.
- Documented and tracked for reasonable progress.
- Given appropriate options for remedial action and resolution.
- Closed in a timely manner.

If Renoir determines that harassment, discrimination, retaliation or other prohibited conduct has occurred, appropriate and effective corrective and remedial action will be taken in accordance with the circumstances involved. Renoir also will take appropriate action to deter future misconduct.

Any employee determined by Renoir to be responsible for harassment, discrimination, retaliation or other prohibited conduct will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action up to and including termination. Renoir employees should also know that if they engage in unlawful harassment, they can be held personally liable for the misconduct.

Employment of Relatives of Employees Policy

EFFECTIVE: June 1, 2019

It is the policy of Renoir to avoid the hiring, transfer, or promotion of relatives of employees into situations where the possibility of favoritism or conflicts of interest might exist. Therefore, applicants will not be hired, nor employees promoted or transferred into the same department at a location where a relative is already employed. In addition, applicants will not be hired, nor employees promoted or transferred into a position where a relative occupies a position in the supervisory chain of command under which the individual applicant or employee would work (no matter how far removed geographically). Also, employment will not be offered anywhere in Renoir to relatives of Renoir officers or employees who have access to confidential information (such as wages and salaries, employee benefits, personnel records, etc.) or employees who are in a position to influence or appear to influence employment or personnel decisions that might be made on behalf of the related applicant.

For purposes of this policy, relatives are defined as:

Father	Wife	Uncle
Mother	Father-in-Law	Aunt
Son	Mother-in-Law	Nephew
Daughter	Son-in-Law	Niece
Brother	Daughter-in-Law	Grandfather
Sister	Brother-in-Law	Grandmother
Husband	Sister-in-Law	Grandchild

IMPORTANT EMPLOYEE INFORMATION

Timesheet Instructions

It is your responsibility to submit an accurately completed timesheet via the Web Portal, Renoir's online timesheet system:

- Timesheets must be submitted electronically through the Web Portal by midnight on Friday, but no later than Sunday.
- Timesheets must be approved by an authorized employee of the client firm; incorrect timesheets will be rejected, and the employee will be responsible for promptly submitting a corrected timesheet.
- You can access your paystubs on the Web Portal by clicking on Check History, or you can request a printed paystub to be sent to you.
- See Appendix B: Employee Payroll Policies for additional information about the Web Portal.
- Failure to complete your timecard on time may result in termination.
- Falsified or altered timesheets will not be accepted and could result in appropriate legal proceedings, including termination.

Overtime

Your account manager must approve all overtime requests before the overtime occurs. Overtime will not be paid unless your assigned account manager and property supervisor have given you authorization to work overtime.

Meal and Rest Breaks

California state law requires that an employer may not employ an employee for a work period of more than five hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee. A second meal period of not less than thirty minutes is required if an employee works more than ten hours per day, except that if the total hours worked is no more than 12 hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and employee only if the first meal period was not waived. Labor Code Section 512.

Payday Schedule

All employee wages are paid weekly. Work weeks are Saturday to Friday and employees are paid on the following Friday of each work week. Renoir offers two methods of wage payment: The first option is direct deposit to your bank account. The second option is the rapid! PayCard. All employees are required to complete Renoir's Employee Direct Deposit Authorization form, with your choice of either direct deposit or the pay card. If you choose direct deposit, you must attach a voided check or bank courtesy letter. You may only have direct deposit to one account.

Holiday Pay

Due to client demand, your account manager may request that you work on a federally recognized holiday. In the event you are asked to work on a holiday, make sure you discuss pay rates and schedules with your account manager directly. There is no legal requirement to pay premium pay for federal holidays. Renoir does not offer holiday pay.

Lost Pay Card or Returned Direct Deposit

If you are due your wages and have lost your pay card, please contact payroll immediately and another one will be sent by overnight mail to you. As soon as you receive your new pay card, please call the number on the back of the card and make sure you speak to a live operator and notify them it's a replacement card. Renoir will only overnight a replacement pay card twice annually. If you lose your pay card twice within a 6-month period, the card will not be sent by overnight mail, it will be sent by regular mail. It is your responsibility to care for it appropriately.

If your direct deposit is rejected and returned to Renoir, Renoir will notify you immediately and a replacement check will be sent by overnight mail to the address we have on file. Your direct deposit account will be deactivated, and a pay card will be issued until a new direct deposit account is set up.

Benefits

See Appendix C: Health Insurance Coverage Options and Your Health Coverage

Paid Sick Leave: Effective July 1, 2015

Under the Healthy Workplaces, Healthy Families Act of 2014, eligible non-exempt employees may accrue paid sick leave and may request and use up to 3 days or 24 hours of accrued paid sick leave per year, after they meet the eligibility requirements. If you leave Renoir's employment, but return within a year, the previous sick balance will be restored. However, if you have been absent from Renoir for 3 months or longer, there is a waiting period of 30 days before you can use your sick leave. For more information, you can contact our Payroll Department at 510.903.2516.

Jury Duty

Renoir encourages employees to fulfill their civic obligations by performing jury service when called. This jury service policy applies to temporary employees. An employee called for jury duty will be provided an excused absence to perform this service and will receive time off for the length of jury service. Employees will receive no compensation other than compensation provided by the courts for jury duty.

If an employee does not have to attend court, s/he is expected to report to work. If an employee who works evenings is required to attend court during the day, individual arrangements with your Renoir representative can be made to facilitate the situation.

Unemployment Insurance

You may be eligible for unemployment while you work for a temporary agency as long as you follow the relevant state guidelines. When your assignment ends, you may register for benefits. You may not receive these, however, if you voluntarily quit, refuse an assignment offered by Renoir, or for any of the other reasons set forth in the Unemployment Insurance Code.

BEFORE BEGINNING AN ASSIGNMENT

When Do I Get to Go to Work?

We will send you to work as soon as we have completed your background and reference checks and we have obtained a job order that requires your skills. In order to go to work, all paperwork mentioned in the application and orientation process must be completed.

Orientation

Renoir provides an orientation video for all new employees to view, which includes details about general safety rules and general policies and procedures.

Availability Notification

Your Renoir account manager will do everything possible to find a suitable assignment for you. However, it is your responsibility to contact your account manager when you are available to accept an assignment.

Directions

Renoir employees will be provided the address of the property to which they are assigned by your account manager. Check arrival times and other pertinent information contained in the job assignment with your account manager.

Job Cancellations

As an employee of Renoir, you are expected to represent the company in a professional manner. If you are unable to complete an assignment, call your account manager immediately so other arrangements can be made. When necessary, leave a voice message for your account manager regarding your availability.

There are times when a client's need changes, and we may need to reassign you. Do not take this personally. This is the nature of temporary work. Your account manager will promptly notify you whenever this occurs.

Assignment/Worksite Arrival

If you arrive and the office is closed or there is no supervisor to direct you, you MUST try to call your account manager immediately while you are still at the property. They will contact the property for proper instruction and notify you immediately. If you cannot reach your account manager or anyone at Renoir, you must wait on site for at least 30 minutes. If you fail to follow these instructions, it can be considered No Show/No Call and will be entered on your record.

Attendance and Punctuality

To maintain a safe and productive work environment, Renoir expects employees to be reliable and to be punctual in reporting for scheduled work. Absenteeism and tardiness place a burden on other employees and on Renoir. If you are going to be absent or you are going to be tardy for your shift/assignment, you must contact your Renoir account manager and the client immediately either by phone or email. Excessive and repeated absences/tardiness are grounds for possible termination from the assignment and/or Renoir. Failure to notify your supervisor of an absence is considered a No Show/No Call and may lead to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

ONSITE POLICIES

Injury While on Jobsite/Workers' Compensation Insurance

If you are injured while on a Renoir jobsite, contact your account manager immediately by calling 1-866-672-3709 so that Renoir can ensure your safety and manage any necessary medical care efficiently. All temporary employees on active assignments with Renoir are covered by Workers' Compensation Insurance. Your account manager will arrange for you to be taken to a designated Occupational Medical Facility for treatment. Renoir will require a drug screen test whenever an on-the-job accident or injury occurs, according to Renoir's Substance Abuse Policy. See Appendix A.

Return-to-Work Program

Renoir supports the practice of bringing injured employees back to work, as soon as they are medically able, to a position in our organization compatible with any physical restrictions they may have. We believe this practice serves the best interests of our employees and the organization.

The prompt return of injured employees to positions within their medical restrictions will minimize the impact of work-related injuries. Coming back to work early helps employees remain functional as they recover while providing our organization with valuable use of their talents. It also helps control workers' compensation costs.

Current positions may be modified to fit the medical limitations of injured employees by modifying workstations, altering specific tasks or working reduced hours. If this is not possible, temporary transitional jobs may be made available either with your department or through a temporary assignment with another department.

This return-to-work program is an important part of our organization's commitment to managing work-related injuries in a way that's best for our employees and for this organization.

Shopping Reports

Renoir does not conduct shopping reports on its employees. However, while you are assigned to a given property, the management company that oversees that property may have arranged for a scheduled shopping report to be done by a licensed and qualified person. This person may pose as a prospective customer and may rate you on your appearance, knowledge of the property, sales ability, manner in which you conducted your tour or how helpful you appeared during a telephone request for information about the property. The management company will forward reports on Renoir employees to Renoir, and your account manager will review such reports with you. Renoir views these reports as an opportunity to learn how you were perceived on the job. Questions concerning this report should be directed to your assigned account manager. Please see Appendix D for an example of such a report.

Telephone Protocol and Dialogue Sheet

Once you arrive at a jobsite, ask your site supervisor about their specific telephone protocol for the property. Each property uses a different scripted form for answering the phone. It is your responsibility to learn and apply the property's required script. An example of standard telephone protocol can be found in Appendix E.

Leasing Agent Checklist

Renoir has created a standard residential leasing and management checklist to help you prepare your answers to prospective tenant questions. Please feel free to make a copy of this form and use it at several of your job assignments so you become knowledgeable quickly and efficiently. This form can be found in Appendix F. A leasing handbook is also available from your account manager for your reference.

Client Property

You may be asked to carry property that belongs to the client (keys, tools, walkie-talkie, cell phone, etc.) while you are on the job to facilitate your job duties. If an employee is asked to carry property for the assignment, the employee must let the account manager know. All property must be returned to management at the end of the business day and no Renoir employee is permitted to remove property from the jobsite or take property home overnight.

Handling of Cash and Money Orders

Renoir employees are not allowed to handle cash or money orders at a property under any circumstances. Violation of this policy is grounds for immediate termination.

Computer and Email Usage

Computers, computer files, the email system and software furnished to employees at a client location are the property of the client and are intended for business use only. Employees should not access personal files, access the internet, check their email, install programs or download files at any time on a client's computer. Additionally, employees will be responsible for the cost of repair to any equipment on which the employee has downloaded files.

Dress Code

Renoir employees should discuss appropriate attire for each assignment with their account manager. Generally, our customers appreciate a more corporate appearance for leasing agents and office personnel. For safety and professional reasons, Renoir strongly recommends property managers, leasing agents and other administrative staff wear flat, comfortable shoes. For your safety, high heels, open-toe and slingback shoes are not permissible for any employee while on assignment. Maintenance and janitorial staff should expect to wear coveralls or workpants, work shirts, and be neat and clean in appearance.

Chemical Sensitivity and Drug & Alcohol Policies Reminder

We appreciate the hard work Renoir's employees put in at the various worksites on a daily basis. We do our best to ensure our employees have safe, healthy, and positive work environments. In keeping with that goal, recent incidents have caused us to feel it necessary to remind employees of Renoir's Drug and Alcohol Use Policy and its policy regarding offensive odors at the workplace.

Among other things, Renoir’s policy prohibits: “The use, possession, solicitation for or sale of narcotics or other illegal drugs, alcohol, or prescription medication without a prescription on company or customer premises or while performing an assignment.” As a further reminder, while recreational and medical use of marijuana is legal under California law, marijuana remains an illegal drug under federal law. In addition, coming to work under the influence of marijuana or consuming marijuana during the workday (including on breaks or lunch) is against Renoir’s policy. Violating this policy may result in appropriate corrective action up to and including termination of employment.

Renoir’s policy also sets forth guidelines regarding odors. These may include, but are not limited to, the odor of marijuana and tobacco products, body odors, perfumes or other strongly scented personal care products. Please keep in mind that these may be offensive to others, as well as trigger reactions in individuals in the workplace with chemical sensitivities. Therefore, coming to work or returning to work from break or lunch with these odors may violate the policy guidelines and may result in appropriate corrective action up to and including termination of employment.

Safety Plan Issues

When you arrive at the jobsite, please ask your site supervisor to see the site’s safety rules or a safety policy or plan (as per SB 198) and review these so you will be prepared in case of an emergency. Review Renoir’s General Safety Rules in Appendix G.

Phone Numbers

For privacy reasons, do not give your home phone number to the clients; the on-site supervisor or company representative must go through Renoir to make any changes in the work schedule.

Personal Phone Calls from Worksite

Use of the telephone at a client location for personal calls, including long-distance and toll calls, is not permitted. Employees may be required to reimburse Renoir or the client for any charges resulting from their personal use of the telephone at a client location.

Use of personal cell phones during work hours is prohibited. Personal calls should be restricted to breaks, meal periods, or in an emergency with the supervisor's permission.

Use of Mail System on Worksite

The mail system at a client location is reserved for business purposes only. Employees should refrain from sending or receiving personal mail at the workplace. Employees will be responsible for the cost of any postage charges incurred.

Personal Emergencies

If a personal emergency arises, please call your local branch office as listed at the beginning of this handbook.

Professionalism

As a representative of Renoir, we discourage your involvement with employee politics when you are assigned to a job site. Establish a professional relationship with your supervisor, other site employees, tenants and vendors. If you find yourself in an uncomfortable situation while on assignment, contact your account manager.

Business Ethics and Conduct

Renoir expects its employees to act in the most ethical of manner while representing the company to a client. Acts of fraud, vandalism or theft (physical or identity) to a client or a client's tenants will not be tolerated under any circumstances. Any suspicion of illegal or unethical conduct will be acted upon immediately, including possible termination of employment and criminal prosecution.

In addition, Renoir maintains a policy of confidentiality and non-disclosure. Confidential information concerning Renoir's business, or that of our clients or employees, may not be disclosed to third parties or used by you for purposes unrelated to your assignment.

Employees who violate these policies will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment. Additionally, employees will be responsible for the cost to repair or replace any equipment which is damaged or lost by the employee.

Disability Accommodations

Renoir is committed to complying fully with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA), as well as all applicable state laws, to ensure equal opportunity in employment for qualified persons with disabilities. All employment practices and activities are conducted on a non-discriminatory basis.

Hiring procedures have been reviewed and provide persons with disabilities meaningful employment opportunities. Pre-employment inquiries are made only regarding an applicant's ability to perform the essential duties of the position.

Reasonable accommodation is available to all disabled employees in which case their disability affects the performance of job functions. All employment decisions are based on the merits of the situation in accordance with defined criteria, not the disability of the individual.

Qualified individuals with disabilities are entitled to the same pay and other forms of compensation (or changes in compensation), as well as in job assignments, classifications, organizational structures, position descriptions, lines of progression and seniority lists as employees without disabilities. Leave of all types will be available to all employees on an equal basis.

Renoir is also committed to not discriminating against any qualified employees or applicants because they are related to or associated with a person with a disability. Renoir will follow any federal, state or local laws that provide individuals with disabilities greater protection than the ADA.

This policy is neither exhaustive nor exclusive. Renoir is committed to taking all other actions necessary to ensure equal employment opportunity for persons with disabilities in accordance with the ADA, ADAAA and all other applicable federal, state, and local laws.

APPENDIXES

APPENDIX A: Substance Abuse Policy

It is the purpose of Renoir to help provide a drug-free environment for our clients and our employees. With this goal and because of the serious drug abuse problem in today's workplace, we have established the following policy for existing and future employees of Renoir.

Renoir explicitly prohibits:

- The use, possession, solicitation for or sale of narcotics or other illegal drugs, alcohol, or prescription medication without a prescription on company or customer premises or while performing an assignment.
- Being impaired by or under the influence of legal or illegal drugs or alcohol off the company or customer premises that adversely affects the employee's work performance, his or her own or other's safety at the workplace, or the employer's reputation.

Renoir may drug test using Substance Abuse & Mental Health Services Administration (S.A.M.H.S.A.) (www.samhsa.gov) standards by three methods:

Pre-Employment:	As may be required by client.
Randomly:	A random selection of some employees for testing will be done unannounced.
For Cause:	Such as failure of a post-accident drug test, or reasonable suspicion of being under the influence at work.

Employees of Renoir who refuse to submit to drug testing, test positive, or admit to substance abuse, will be subject to termination.

Also, employees of Renoir who test positive or admit to substance abuse will be referred to local public agencies that provide rehabilitation and counseling services.

The results of all drug testing will be treated confidentially and for no purpose other than for Renoir to make employment-related decisions.

APPENDIX B1: Employee Payroll Policies

In order to qualify to work with Renoir, employees must have the following completed and in their respective employee files:

- Application for work
- W-4
- I-9
- Resume
- Two (2) professional references
- Employee Background Search Release Form

All employee wages are paid weekly on Friday. Wages will include earnings for all work performed through the end of the previous payroll period, with the work week being Saturday through Friday. If a payday falls on a holiday, you will be paid the day before on Thursday. There are no advances against paychecks and no interim pay between paydays will be issued.

Renoir utilizes two methods of wage payment: The first option is direct deposit to your bank account. The second option is the rapid! PayCard. All employees are required to complete the Employee Direct Deposit Authorization Form, with your choice of either direct deposit or the pay card. If you choose direct deposit, you must attach a voided check or bank courtesy letter. You may only have direct deposit to one account.

If any wages are returned due to a cancelled or closed account, the Payroll Department will process and send a live check via overnight delivery once those wages have been returned. You will receive a rapid! PayCard until a new direct deposit form is completed.

Reimbursements are processed by our Accounting Department, not Payroll. All reimbursements are due on Friday. You cannot pick up any form of wages directly from the office. All payroll processing is done at our Folsom office.

Timesheets must be submitted electronically through the Web Portal by midnight on Friday. Timesheets must be approved by an authorized employee of the client firm; incorrect timesheets will be rejected, and the employee will be responsible for promptly submitting a corrected timesheet.

Your account manager must approve overtime before the overtime occurs. Overtime will not be paid unless your assigned account manager and the property supervisor have given you authorization to work. Repeated unauthorized overtime may result in corrective action up to and including termination.

Forged or altered time sheets will not be accepted and could result in appropriate legal proceedings, including termination.

APPENDIX C: Health Insurance Coverage Options and Your Health Coverage

PART A: General Information

The Affordable Care Act took effect in 2014 and has now been fully implemented. To assist you as you evaluate options for you and your family, this section provides some basic information and addresses some frequently asked questions about the employment-based health coverage offered by your employer.

What is the Health Insurance Marketplace?

The Marketplace is designed to help you find health insurance that meets your needs and fits your budget. The Marketplace offers "one-stop shopping" to find and compare private health insurance options. You may also be eligible for a tax credit that lowers your monthly premium right away.

Can I Save Money on my Health Insurance Premiums in the Marketplace?

You may qualify to save money and lower your monthly premium, but only if your employer does not offer coverage, or offers coverage that doesn't meet certain standards. The savings on your premium that you're eligible for depends on your household income.

Does Employer Health Coverage affect Eligibility for Premium Savings through the Marketplace?

Yes. If you have an offer of health coverage from your employer that meets certain standards, you will not be eligible for a tax credit through the Marketplace and may wish to enroll in your employer's health plan. However, you may be eligible for a tax credit that lowers your monthly premium or a reduction in certain cost-sharing if your employer does not offer coverage at all or does not offer coverage that meets certain standards. If the cost of a plan from your employer that would cover you (and not any other members of your family) is more than 9.5% of your household income for the year, or if the coverage your employer provides does not meet the "minimum value" standard set by the Affordable Care Act, you may be eligible for a tax credit.

Note: If you purchase a health plan through the Marketplace instead of accepting health coverage offered by your employer, then you may lose the employer contribution (if any) to the employer-offered coverage. Also, this employer contribution—as well as your employee contribution to employer-offered coverage—is often excluded from income for federal and state income tax purposes. Your payments for coverage through the Marketplace are made on an after-tax basis.

You should be aware that if you select a plan where you have to pay a portion of the premium for coverage, you will be responsible for paying your portion. If you do not, the plan may cancel your coverage and you will cease to be covered.

How Can I Get More Information?

For more information about your coverage offered by your employer, you can contact Anne Sparks at asparks@renoirstaffing.com or 916.290.6588.

The Marketplace can also help you evaluate your coverage options, including your eligibility for coverage through the Marketplace and its cost. Please visit www.HealthCare.gov for more information, including an online application for health insurance coverage and contact information for a Health Insurance Marketplace in your area.

An employer-sponsored health plan meets the "minimum value standard" if the plan's share of the total allowed benefit costs covered by the plan is no less than 60 percent of such costs.

PART B: Information about Health Coverage offered by your Employer

This section contains information about any health coverage offered by your employer. If you decide to complete an application for coverage in the Marketplace, you will be asked to provide this information. This information is numbered to correspond to the Marketplace application.

Renoir Staffing, LLC
1301 Marina Village Parkway, Ste. 350
Alameda, CA 94510

Tax ID# 27-2220556
(510) 903-2500

You are not eligible for health insurance through Renoir Staffing, LLC. You and your family may be able to obtain health coverage through the Marketplace, with a new kind of tax credit that lowers your monthly premiums and with assistance for out-of-pocket costs.

PART C: Renoir's ACA-Compliant Plan

Renoir has implemented an employer-based, ACA-compliant plan for its eligible temporary employees. Eligible employee is defined as averaging at least 30 hours per week during a 6 month look-back period. We also offer coverage to dependents at a cost to the employee. When temporary employees become eligible for coverage, Renoir will advise them of their eligibility and provide information on the plan.

What is COBRA Continuation Coverage?

COBRA continuation coverage is a continuation of plan coverage when coverage would otherwise end because of a life event, known as a "qualifying event." Specific qualifying events are listed on the following page. After a qualifying event, COBRA continuation coverage must be offered to each person who is a "qualified beneficiary." You, your spouse, and your dependent children could become qualified beneficiaries if coverage under the plan is lost because of the qualifying event.

If you're an employee, you'll become a qualified beneficiary if you lose your coverage under the plan because of either of the following qualifying events:

- Your hours of employment are reduced.
- Your employment ends for any reason other than your gross misconduct.

If you're the spouse of an employee, you'll become a qualified beneficiary if you lose your coverage under the plan because of any of the following qualifying events:

- Your spouse dies.
- Your spouse's hours of employment are reduced.
- Your spouse's employment ends for any reason other than his or her gross misconduct.
- Your spouse becomes entitled to Medicare benefits (under Part A, Part B, or both).*
- You become divorced or legally separated from your spouse.

Your dependent children will become qualified beneficiaries if they lose coverage under the plan because of any of the following qualifying events:

- The parent-employee dies.
- The parent-employee's hours of employment are reduced.
- The parent-employee's employment ends for any reason other than his or her gross misconduct.
- The parent-employee becomes entitled to Medicare benefits (Part A, Part B, or both).*
- The parents become divorced or legally separated.
- The child stops being eligible for coverage under the plan as a "dependent child."

The interaction of Medicare and receipt of COBRA benefits is a complex area of the law. Please consult with your legal counsel or benefits specialist to ensure proper compliance with applicable legal requirements.*

APPENDIX G:

General Safety Rules

Renoir has developed these safety rules patterned after Federal OSHA requirements. Read and become familiar with these rules, as well as any other safety rules that apply to your job.

1. Report an injury to your employer/supervisor and your Renoir account manager immediately.
2. Report any observed unsafe condition to your employer/supervisor.
3. Horseplay is prohibited at all times.
4. The drinking of alcoholic beverages is not permitted on the job. Any employee discovered under the influence of alcohol or drugs will not be permitted to work.
5. If you do not have current First Aid Training, do not move or treat an injured person unless there is an immediate peril, such as profuse bleeding or stoppage of breathing.
6. Appropriate clothing and footwear must be worn on the job at all times.
7. Where there exists the hazard of falling objects, an approved hard hat must be worn.
8. You should not perform any task unless you are trained to do so and are aware of the hazards associated with that task.
9. You may be assigned certain personal protective safety equipment. This equipment should be available for use on the job, be maintained in good condition, and worn when required.
10. Learn safe work practices. When in doubt about performing a task safely, contact your supervisor for instruction and training.
11. The riding of a hoist hook, or on other equipment not designed for such purposes, is prohibited at all times.
12. Never remove or bypass safety devices.
13. Do not approach operating machinery from the blind side; let the operator see you.
14. Learn where fire extinguishers and first aid kits are located.
15. Maintain a general condition of good housekeeping in all work areas at all times.
16. Obey all traffic regulations when operating vehicles on public highways.
17. When operating or riding in company vehicles or using your personal vehicle for business purposes, the vehicle's seatbelt shall be worn.
18. Be alert to hazards that could affect you and your co-employees.
19. Obey safety signs and tags.
20. Always perform your assigned task in a safe and proper manner; do not take shortcuts. The taking of shortcuts and the ignoring of established safety rules is a leading cause of employee injury.
21. Observe all assigned workplace safety rules, policies and procedures.

APPENDIX H:
EEOC Policy

This is to advise all candidates and employees of Renoir that our industry's Standards of Ethical Practices absolutely prohibit discrimination against job applicants based upon any protected personal characteristic or trait as set forth in applicable state and federal laws (i.e. race, color, disability, religion, national origin, sex, sexual preference, age, etc.).

Renoir will not tolerate violations of anti-discrimination laws. If you have questions about this, or believe you have been treated unfairly, please speak immediately to the human resources manager or president of Renoir.

APPENDIX I:
Occupational Medical Facilities

When injured on the worksite, you must contact a Renoir staff member immediately. Renoir is part of a Medical Provider Network (MPN). Any injured employee is required to go to one of these facilities, unless they completed a Predesignation of Personal Physician form at the time of hire or it is an emergency.

All employees that experience a work-related injury or illness must have a post-injury/illness drug screen.

APPENDIX J:

Rights of Victims of Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault and Stalking

Your Right to Take Time Off:

- You have the right to take time off from work to get help to protect you and your children's health, safety or welfare. You can take time off to get a restraining order or other court order.
- If your company has 25 or more workers, you can take time off from work to get medical attention or services from a domestic violence shelter, program or rape crisis center, psychological counseling, or receive safety planning related to domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
- You may use available vacation, personal leave, accrued paid sick leave or compensatory time off for your leave unless you are covered by a union agreement that says something different. Even if you don't have paid leave, you still have the right to time off.
- In general, you don't have to give your employer proof to use leave for these reasons.
- If you can, you should tell your employer before you take time off. Even if you cannot tell your employer before, your employer cannot discipline you if you give proof explaining the reason for your absence within a reasonable time. Proof can be a police report, court order or doctor's or counselor's note or similar document.

Your Right to Reasonable Accommodation:

You have the right to ask your employer for help or changes in your workplace to make sure you are safe at work. Your employer must work with you to see what changes can be made. Changes in the workplace may include putting in locks, changing your shift or phone number, transferring or reassigning you, or helping to keep a record of what happened to you.

Your employer can ask you for a signed statement certifying that your request is for a proper purpose and may also request proof showing your need for an accommodation. Your employer cannot tell your coworkers or anyone else about your request.

Your Right to Be Free from Retaliation and Discrimination:

Your employer cannot treat you differently or fire you because:

- You are a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking.
- You asked for leave time to get help.
- You asked for help or changes in the workplace to make sure you are safe at work.

APPENDIX K:

Certificate of Acknowledgement of Receipt of the Employment Handbook and Review of Renoir Staffing LLC’s General Policies and Procedures

This certificate acknowledges that I received a copy of the Temporary Employment Handbook, which supersedes all prior personnel handbooks of Renoir’s employment policies. This certificate also acknowledges that I have reviewed the general policies and procedures required by Renoir with a Renoir employee. I understand that the employee handbook contains important information about Renoir’s general personnel policies, benefits and provisions that control my employment relationship with Renoir.

I hereby acknowledge that I have been advised that Renoir is a tribally owned staffing company, governed and managed according to applicable tribal policies and procedures of the Blue Lake Rancheria Tribe, a federally recognized Native American tribe. I further acknowledge that Renoir is my employer with overall responsibility for my employment relationship and terms of employment, including the sole right to direct my work activities by determining job assignment and employment termination. Renoir also has sole responsibility for all payroll, workers’ compensation coverage and unemployment compensation matters. Notwithstanding Renoir’s rights and responsibilities, I agree to follow the instructions of worksite supervisors regarding the performance of tasks for the worksite company.

As an employee of Renoir, I consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the tribe’s Dispute Resolution Process (DRP), these handbook rules, and the Tribal Court for any and all disputes in connection with my employment with Renoir. I also consent to the application of the tribe’s law, both substantive and procedural, regarding any and all proceedings, matters and things relating to my employment relationship with Renoir.

I understand that this handbook is not an expressed or implied contract for a specific period of employment and does not form continuing or long-term employment between Renoir and me. It is, however, the final and complete understanding between us regarding my “at-will” employment status. This means that I am free to end my employment at any time, for any reason, with or without cause, and Renoir retains the same right. I also understand that no amendment or exception to our at-will policy can be made at any time, for any reason, except in writing by the Human Resource Manager or President of Renoir.

I acknowledge that Renoir reserves the right to change any provision in this handbook at any time for any reason without advance notice. Though Renoir can make changes, I understand that nothing in this handbook can be modified or deleted, nor can anything be added in any way by oral statements or practice. Only Renoir can change this Temporary Employment Handbook, and the change must be in writing. If Renoir makes any material changes, I will be provided a copy of the changes.
