

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE PREVENTION PROGRAM for RENOIR STAFFING, LLC

Renoir Staffing's Workplace Violence Prevention Plan (WVPP) addresses the hazards known to be associated with the four types of workplace violence as defined by Labor Code \(LC\) section 6401.9.

Date of Last Review: April 1, 2024

Date of Last Revision(s): April 1, 2024

DEFINITIONS

Emergency - Unanticipated circumstances that can be life threatening or pose a risk of significant injuries to employees or other persons.

Engineering Controls - An aspect of the built space or a device that removes a hazard from the workplace or creates a barrier between the employee and the hazard.

Log - The violent incident log required by LC section 6401.9.

Plan - The workplace violence prevention plan required by LC section 6401.9.

Serious injury or illness - Any injury or illness occurring in a place of employment or in connection with any employment that requires inpatient hospitalization for other than medical observation or diagnostic testing, or in which an employee suffers an amputation, the loss of an eye, or any serious degree of permanent disfigurement, but does not include any injury or illness or death caused by an accident on a public street or highway, unless the accident occurred in a construction zone.

Threat of violence - Any verbal or written statement, including, but not limited to, texts, electronic messages, social media messages, or other online posts, or any behavioral or physical conduct, that conveys an intent, or that is reasonably perceived to convey an intent, to cause physical harm or to place someone in fear of physical harm, and that serves no legitimate purpose.

Workplace violence - Any act of violence or threat of violence that occurs in a place of employment.

Workplace violence includes, but is not limited to, the following:

The threat or use of physical force against an employee that results in, or has a high likelihood of resulting in, injury, psychological trauma, or stress, regardless of whether the employee sustains an injury.

An incident involving a threat or use of a firearm or other dangerous weapon, including the use of common objects as weapons, regardless of whether the employee sustains an injury.

The following four workplace violence types:

Type 1 violence - Workplace violence committed by a person who has no legitimate business at the worksite and includes violent acts by anyone who enters the workplace or approaches employees with the intent to commit a crime.

Type 2 violence - Workplace violence directed at employees by customers, clients, patients, students, inmates, or visitors.

Type 3 violence - Workplace violence against an employee by a present or former employee, supervisor, or manager.

Type 4 violence - Workplace violence committed in the workplace by a person who does not work there but has or is known to have had a personal relationship with an employee.

Workplace violence does not include lawful acts of self-defense or defense of others.

Work practice controls - Procedures and rules which are used to effectively reduce workplace violence hazards.

A. RESPONSIBILITY

The WVPP administrator, Anne Sparks – Director of Corporate Affairs, has the authority and responsibility for implementing the provisions of this plan for Renoir Staffing LLC. If there are multiple people responsible for the plan, their roles will be clearly described.

Responsible Persons	Job Title/Position	WVPP Responsibility(ies)	Phone #	Email
Anne Sparks	Director of Corporate Affairs	Overall responsibility for the plan	916-290-6588	asparks@renoirstaffing.com
Heather Olaguez	Director of Finance	Responsible for employee involvement and training; Heather handles training and reporting for the Finance Department.	916-290-7554	holaguez@renoirstaffing.com
Lia Lovelady	Director of Staffing Services	Responsible for employee involvement and training; Lia organizes safety meetings, updates training materials, and handles any reports of workplace violence, within the Staffing Department.	916-290-6586	Lia.lovelady@renoirstaffing.com

All managers and supervisors are responsible for implementing and maintaining the WVPP in their work areas and for answering employee questions about the WVPP.

B. EMPLOYEE ACTIVE INVOLVEMENT

Renoir Staffing LLC ensures the following policies and procedures to obtain the active involvement of employees and authorized employee representatives in developing and implementing the plan:

- Management will work with and allow employees and authorized employee representatives to participate in:
 - Identifying, evaluating, and determining corrective measures to prevent workplace violence.

- Management will have monthly safety meetings with employees and their representatives to discuss identification of workplace violence related concerns/hazards, evaluate those hazards and/or concerns, and how to correct them. These meetings could involve brainstorming sessions, discussions of recent incidents, and reviews of safety procedures.
- Designing and implementing training.

Employees are encouraged to participate in designing and implementing training programs, and their suggestions are incorporated into the training materials. For example, an employee might suggest a new training scenario based on a recent incident.

Reporting and investigating workplace violence incidents

- Report Promptly: Encourage timely incident reporting.
- Assess Safety: Secure the scene and preserve evidence.
- Interview Witnesses: Gather accounts from involved parties.
- Analyze Root Causes: Identify underlying factors.
- Document Findings: Prepare an incident report.
- Management Review: Present findings and recommend actions.
- Implement Changes: Monitor progress and update policies.

Management will ensure that all workplace violence policies and procedures within this written plan are clearly communicated and understood by all employees. Managers and supervisors will enforce the rules fairly and uniformly.

All employees will follow all workplace violence prevention plan directives, policies, and procedures, and assist in maintaining a safe work environment.

Purpose: The WVPP aims to respond swiftly to workplace violence incidents. It complements existing anti-violence policies.

Requirements: California Senate Bill 553 mandates pre- and post-violent incident activities.

Elements:

- Education and Training: Regularly educate employees on recognizing violent incidents.
- Communication: Maintain ongoing communication about workplace violence.
- Incident Reporting: Encourage prompt reporting of incidents.
- Violent Incident Report: Supervisors complete a report after an incident.
- Incident Investigation: Departmental personnel officers investigate incidents.
- Violent Incident Log: Maintain a log to track incidents.

- Issue Identification and Hazard Correction: Continuously evaluate incidents and take corrective actions.

Existing Policy Prohibiting Employee Violence:

- The organization maintains a zero-tolerance policy for workplace violence.
- Employees are prohibited from possessing weapons on the job, except when required for official duties.

Employee Responsibilities:

- Compliance: All employees must follow WVPP directives, policies, and procedures.
- Assistance: Employees play an active role in maintaining a safe work environment.

The plan shall be always in effect and in all work areas and be specific to the hazards and corrective measures for each work area and operation.

C. EMPLOYEE COMPLIANCE

Our system to ensure that employees comply with the rules and work practices that are designed to make the workplace more secure, and do not engage in threats or physical actions which create a security hazard for others in the workplace, include at a minimum:

- Training employees, supervisors, and managers in the provisions of Renoir Staffing LLC Workplace Violence Prevention Plan (WVPP)
 - Effective procedures to ensure that supervisory and nonsupervisory employees comply with the WVPP. Communication and Training:
 - Regular training sessions on workplace violence prevention.
 - Written materials outlining WVPP requirements.
 - Supervisor Accountability:
 - Specific training for supervisors.
 - Prompt reporting by supervisors.
 - Employee Acknowledgment:
 - Signed acknowledgment forms.
 - Annual reviews to reinforce WVPP.
 - Audits and Inspections:
 - Regular audits of compliance.
 - Corrective actions when needed.
 - Performance Evaluations:
 - Include WVPP compliance.
 - Recognize compliant employees.
 - Feedback and Dialogue:
 - Anonymous surveys and open discussions.
- Provide retraining to employees whose safety performance is deficient with the WVPP.

- Recognizing employees who demonstrate safe work practices that promote the WVPP in the workplace by Acknowledging employees via email and social media.
- Discipline employees for failure to comply with the WVPP. (You can either refer to Renoir Staffing LLC Temporary Employee Handbook on the discipline process.)

D. COMMUNICATION WITH EMPLOYEES

We recognize that open, two-way communication between our management team, staff, and other employees about workplace violence issues is essential to a safe and productive workplace. The following communication system is designed to facilitate a continuous flow of workplace violence prevention information between management and staff in a form that is readily understandable by all employees, and consists of one or more of the following:

- New employee orientation includes workplace violence prevention policies and procedures.
- Workplace violence prevention training programs.
- Regularly scheduled meetings that address security issues and potential workplace violence hazards
- Effective communication between employees and supervisors about workplace violence prevention and violence concerns.
- Renoir Staff will send reminders via text messages and email messages.
- Posted or distributed workplace violence prevention information.
- How employees can report a violent incident, threat, or other workplace violence concern to employer or law enforcement without fear of reprisal or adverse action.
 - Employees can anonymously report a violent incident, threat, or other violence concerns.
 - Provide contact information for who to call for emergency response; Employees can contact any Renoir Staff member to report an incident. Or they can report via email to support@renoirstaffing.com or call (866) 672-3709.
- Employees will not be prevented from accessing their mobile or other communication devices to seek emergency assistance, assess the safety of a situation, or communicate with a person to verify their safety. Employees' concerns will be investigated in a timely manner, and they will be informed of the results of the investigation and any corrective actions to be taken.
- Methods of effective communication;

Updates on the status of investigations and corrective actions are provided to employees through email and at safety meetings. These updates could include information about the progress of investigations, the results of investigations, and any corrective actions taken.

Sharing training materials and incident reports with other employers to ensure a coordinated response to any incidents. This could involve sending copies of training materials and incident reports to other employers.

E. COORDINATION WITH OTHER EMPLOYERS

Renoir Staffing LLC will implement the following effective procedures to coordinate implementation of its plan with other employers to ensure that those employers and employees understand their respective roles, as provided in the plan.

- All employees will be trained in workplace violence prevention.
- Workplace violence incidents involving any employee are reported, investigated, and recorded.
- At a multiemployer worksite, Renoir Staffing LLC will ensure that if its employees experience workplace violence incident that Renoir Staffing LLC will record the information in a violent incident log and shall also provide a copy of that log to controlling employer.

F. WORKPLACE VIOLENCE INCIDENT REPORTING PROCEDURE

Renoir Staffing LLC will implement the following effective procedures to ensure that:

- All threats or acts of workplace violence are reported to an employee's supervisor or manager, who will inform the WVPP administrator. This will be accomplished by phone, email, text, or letter. If that's not possible, employees will report incidents directly to the WVPP administrator, Anne Sparks, Director of Corporate Affairs.
- Employees can report incidents to their supervisor, HR, or through an anonymous hotline. The hotline could be a dedicated phone number or an online form.
 - Workplace Violence Reporting Hotline: 866.672.3709 – support@renoirstaffing.com or ask for the Workplace Violence Form

A strict non-retaliation policy is in place, and any instances of retaliation are dealt with swiftly and decisively.

G. EMERGENCY RESPONSE PROCEDURES

Renoir Staffing LLC has, in place, the following specific measures to manage actual or potential workplace violence emergencies:

- Effective means to alert employees of the presence, location, and nature of workplace violence emergencies by the following:
 - Phone, text and email messages will be utilized if appropriate for the situation.
 - If available Renoir will request our clients utilize their Alarm systems and PA announcements to alert employees of emergencies.
- Renoir Staffing LLC will have evacuation:
 - Exit Routes:
 - Identify primary and secondary exit routes in the workplace.
 - Ensure exits are unobstructed and clearly marked.
 - Exit doors must remain unlocked from the inside.
 - Emergency Evacuation:
 - Employees can use mobile devices to seek emergency assistance.
 - Assess safety and choose the nearest exit.
 - Exit routes must accommodate the maximum occupant load.
 - Retreat Procedures:
 - In crisis situations, prioritize safety over belongings.
 - Follow designated exit routes to reach a safe area.
 - Assist colleagues with special needs (e.g., allergies, disabilities).
 - Employee Training:
 - Conduct regular drills to practice evacuation and retreat.
 - Educate employees on exit locations and procedures.
 - How to obtain help from staff, security personnel, or law enforcement.
