Paid Family Leave

Paid Family Leave benefits for California workers

There may be times in the life of a working person when they need to care for a loved one. Whether it's a working parent bonding with a newborn or an employee caring for a seriously ill child, parent, parent-in-law, grandparent, grandchild, sibling, spouse, or registered domestic partner. California's Paid Family Leave (PFL) was created for these times (Note: Registered domestic partners must meet requirements and register with the California Secretary of State to be eligible for benefits).

A program benefiting you and your family

California leads the nation as the first state to make it easier for employees to balance the demands of the workplace and family care needs at home. PFL benefits are based on the claimant's (care provider's) past quarterly earnings. For more information regarding maximum benefit amounts paid, read the Disability Insurance (DI) and Paid Family Leave (PFL) Weekly Benefit Amounts in Dollar Increments form, DE 2589, at www.edd.ca.gov/disability.

Paid Family Leave for California employees

PFL benefits do not provide job protection or return rights. Job protection may be provided if your employer is subject to the federal Family Medical Leave Act and the California Family Rights Act. Notify your employer of the reason for taking leave in a manner consistent with your company's leave policy.

To qualify for PFL benefits, you must meet the following requirements:

- Submit your claim no earlier than nine days, but no later than 49 days, after the first day your family care leave began.
- Provide documentation to support a claim for bonding with a new biological, adopted, or foster child.
- Use up to two weeks of any earned but unused vacation leave or paid time off, if required by your employer, prior to the initial receipt of benefits.
- Serve a seven-day unpaid waiting period before benefits begin for each different care recipient within the 12-month period.

You may not be eligible for benefits if:

- You are not suffering a loss of wages.
- The need for care is not supported by the certificate of a treating physician/practitioner.
